THE CHICAGO HORROR

Delving Into the Debris at the World's Fair Fire

TO RECOVER THE BODIES OF THE LOST

The Remains of Those Known to Have Perished Taken Out, but Still Others Supposed to be Under the Ruins.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, July 11.—At 12 o'clock the work of delving into the debris was discontinued for the lunch hour. Marshal King and his twenty men have reached the network of pipes which formed the freezing process for the ice rink on the top floor, but deeper progress has been almost stopped as the pipes are heavy and cover an immense space. Those bodies taken out thus far are probably all of the firemen who were sent to death by the falling tower, and if anybody was in the building or on the stairs leading to the top floor it will soon be known if their bodies have not been cremated.

The work of the searching crew was taken up again at 12:30 under the adverse circumstances existing, and it is likely that the bottom will be reached by 5 o'clock to-night.

Powerful machinery will be required to lift the net-work of freezing pipes and allow the firemen to delve still deeper for humanity, which it is conceded by all, is certainly wedged below. Probably by noon to-morrow the anxiously-awaited truth will have been reached.

The following is a list of the fatalities:

THE DEAD.

James Fitzpatrick, 54 years old, captain engine company 2.
John Freeman, lieutenant company 1.
Wm. Denning, truck company 8.
N. Hartman, a fireman.
Philip P. Breen, truck company 8.
Capt. J. H. Galvey, engine company 1.
John McBride, captain engine company 1.
John Cahill, truck company 8.
Paul Schroeder, truck company 8.
Burton E. Page, captain truck company 3.
Charles Purvis, lieutenant engine company 4.
John A. Smith, driver engine company 4.

FATALLY INJURED.

L. J. Frank, fireman; expected to die to-night.
Sigmund Nordrum, engine company No. 2; can not live twelve hours.

The four Columbian guards who were reported in the list of missing have been heard from.

At daylight Marshall King and twenty laborers were at work on the ruins. By 7 o'clock three bodies were recovered from the ruins but they were so badly charred and disguised as to make recognition impossible. One thing seems quite evident, however, and that is that the bodies discovered are not the remains of firemen, because they were found at a somewhat remote distance from where the firemen fell, and under a mass of steam pipe and machinery that must have fallen from above. This gives color to the fearful apprehension that the firemen were by no means the only ones who fell victims to the flames, and the public is disposed to doubt the declarations that employes and visitors were out of the building before the conflagration had reached a dangerous stage.

The search went on with but one short intermission until 4:10 o'clock, when one more body was brought to the surface. Like the others, it was charred beyond recognition.

At 5 o'clock another body, burned beyond recognition, was found just under the network of pipes, and was extricated with difficulty. There are rumors yet to be heard to the effect that Henry Ceduldig, foreman of the painters in the Cold Storage building, is missing, together with a carpenter, John Campbell, but as many others who were thought to have been lost have turned up, it is presumed that these men have escaped.

Marshal Murphy is convinced that there are more bodies under the ruins. He said to-day: "We have accounted for the firemen and a lineman. But what of those carpenters and painters? The place was full of men when I went there and I noticed particularly two men carrying little blast stoves used in soldering. They, as was the case with the carpenters, did not realize the extent of the danger and were standing around."

In regard to the reports he had made on the unsafe condition of the building, the chief said guardedly: "I correspond in my official capacity, only with Mr. Burnham, director of works, I have sent three letters in regard to the condition of the building and have reported to him after each one of the four fires, and recommended that something be done at once to prevent a recurrence of the affairs.

After the cold storage fire horror came the display, to-day, of practical human sympathy for the widows and children of the brave men who died at the post of duty. Subscriptions and offers of substantial help came in all day to President Higginbotham, who reported the following: Northern Trust Co., $1,000; Potter Palmer, $1,000; Commissioner Massey, $100; Philadelphia Cafe, $100; Record and Hopkins; $100; Director Schwab, $200; the foreign commissioners to the fair, $745. The total amount of the subscription to-night amounts to $8,310, but it will not stop there by any means. The Cliff Dwellers Co. and the Military tournament will give a performance for the benefit of the brave men. The employes of the exposition and concessionaires and other pass-holders will contribute the price of an admission, fifty cents each, next Thursday.

A proposition will be made to the executive committee to designate one day, the proceeds of which shall go to the relief fund. Those inclined to give more than fifty cents for their tickets that day will be allowed to do so. Charles T. Yerkes, the street railway magnate has offered $2,500 for his ticket.

The first act of the council of administration at its meeting to-day was to pass a series of resolutions extending its sympathy and condolence to the bereaved, attesting its high appreciation of the heroism for the dead and surviving, and commending to the executive committee of the exposition the propriety of making such appropriation to the fund for the sufferers as it should deem adequate; also authorizing President Higginbotham to present a medal to each of the survivors whose conduct was marked by personal bravery.

Paid Admissions to the World's Fair.

CHICAGO, July 12.—The paid admissions at the World's fair yesterday were 101,924.

LAID TO REST.

Funeral of the Late Associate Justice Samuel Blatchford.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 12.—The funeral rites were performed over the remains of the late Associate Justice Samuel Blatchford, of the United States supreme court, at 2:30 yesterday in All Saints' chapel, which was crowded, while the streets around were filled with people and carriages.

The remains were taken direct to All Saints' church, the bearers being Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller, Justice Horace Gray, Justice David J. Brewer, Justice George Shiras, Jr., Justice Howell E. Jackson, Judges E. Henry Lacombe, Nathaniel Shipman, Charles L. Benedict, Hoyt H. Wheeler, Addison Brown, Alfred C. Cox, Charles Andrew, John C. Gray, John S. Edwick, Seth Low, Anthony Webster, John L. Cadwalader and James Lowndes.

The services at the church were conducted by Rt. Rev. Bishop Potter, a relative; Rt. Rev. Bishop Clarke, of Rhode Island, Rev. Dr. H. Y. Satterlee, and Rev. Dr. Alexander Mackaye Smith, of Washington. The funeral party were driven from the church to the dock of the steamer General, and upon her transported to Wickford, leaving at 4:20 p. m. There a special parlor car was in waiting for the party, which reached New York about 11 o'clock last night. The burial took place to-day at 9 a. m., at Greenwood cemetery.

Return of the Advance Guard of the Behring Sea Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The advance guard of the returning Behring sea commission has arrived in the persons of Maj. E. W. Halford and J. Stanley Brown. Maj. Halford has formally reported his return to the department of state and has surrendered his vouchers, showing the expenditures made by him on account of the commission up to date, when he turned his balance over to Agent Foster and started for the United States.

Maj. Halford believes that the arbitration will be concluded in a shorter time than the three months allowed by the treaty under which the proceedings are being conducted. The arbitrators nearly all have good reasons to press the work before them to a conclusion.

Senator Morgan is so deeply interested in the silver and financial questions that are to come before congress that he feels it to be almost necessary that he should return to the United States soon after the special session begins.

The ladies of the Spanish royal family have all reduced their civil lists, so that there is a reduction of $200,000 in the amount they draw yearly from the national exchequer. This is a practical way of helping the government's scheme of economy.

Be on your Guard.

If some grocers urge another baking powder upon you in place of the "Royal," it is because of the greater profit upon it. This of itself is evidence of the superiority of the "Royal." To give greater profit the other must be a lower cost powder, and to cost less it must be made with cheaper and inferior materials, and thus, though selling for the same, give less value to the consumer.

To insure the finest cake, the most wholesome food, be sure that no substitute for Royal Baking Powder is accepted by you.

Nothing can be substituted for the Royal Baking Powder and give as good results.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY

John Deasey, Anti-Parnellite Member of Parliament,

FOUND GUILTY OF COMMON ASSAULT.

Another Suit Against the Whisky Trust—Liquor Dealers in Convention—The Silver Convention—Didn't Go Fishing—Failed to Open.

Found Guilty of Common Assault.

LONDON, July 12.—Mr. John Deasey, anti-Parnellite member of parliament for West Mayo, was fund guilty, yesterday, of common assault. He was fined £25 and ordered to pay costs of the prosecution. Mr. Deasey was placed on trial on the charge of having indecently assaulted a 16-year-old servant girl named Ellen Lewis, employed in the house in which he lodged in Pimlico. He claimed that the incidents that led to the charge being made against him were the outcome of an accident. The jury, however, believed the witnesses for the prosecution to the extent that an assault had been committed, but not an indecent assault, as charged. They therefore brought in a verdict of common assault.

Another Suit Against the Whisky Trust.

CHICAGO, July 12.—The case of People, by Maurice T. Moloney, attorney general, against the Distilling and Cattle Feeding Co., better known as the "Whisky Trust," to establish the former title in connection with the latter appellation, was called for hearing just before the noon adjournment in Judge Tuley's court yesterday. The opening was secured by the defendants on a motion to dismiss the complainant's bill.

One of the chief points referred to in behalf of this position was that the company was regularly organized and chartered under the laws of the state, and was therefore a legal corporation. The case was argued yesterday afternoon. This preliminary hearing is expected to settle the ultimate fate of the company—good or bad—as the points in issue lie at the foundation of the institution.

Liquor Dealers in Convention.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Liquor dealers from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Missouri, Texas, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, California, Mississippi and Illinois met at Turner hall yesterday to discuss the advisability of forming a national association. Addresses of weclome were made by Thomas Knowland, president of the Liquor Dealers' and Manufacturers' association of Illinois, and Thomas Gainty, president of the Chicago branch. After the appointment of a committee on credentials the convention took a recess until afternoon.

The Silver Convention.

DENVER, Col., July 12.—Silver men from all parts of Colorado are present at the silver convention at the Colisseum. There is an immense crowd in attendance. G. G. Merrick, president of the State Silver league, called the convention to order and made a lengthy speech. A committee of one from each county in the state was named on permanent organization, and yesterday afternoon permanent officers were chosen. There was a great meeting last night.

Didn't Go Fishing.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 12.—The president did not go fishing yesterday afternoon, but after breakfast sat on the piazza until noon, when his carriage drove up, and behind the pair of bays, he came over to Buzzard's Bay. Mr. Cleveland later returned to Gray Gables, where Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jefferson called later.

Did Not Open Its Doors.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., July 11.—A special to the Daily News from Auburn, Ind., says the private bank of John L. Davis did not open its doors this morning. No statement is given. The bank has had a good reputation all over northern Indiana.

WHOLESALE POISONING.

A Whole Community Knocked Out by Home-Made Cheese.

MANSFIELD, O., July 12.—The wholesale case of poisoning by the eating of cheese in this city is much worse than was at first supposed. Nearly every person in twenty-five families who purchased and ate of the cheese is now afflicted, and for fourteen persons there is slight hopes of recovery.

One hundred and ten persons sampled the cheese, which was manufactured near the city. Doctors, together with the coroner, are in charge of the afflicted, and though no deaths are yet reported, several persons are expected hourly to die.

Admiral Wandelkolk Joins the Brazilian Revolutionists.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Private advices from Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, received in this city, confirm the report that Admiral Wandelkolk has joined his fortunes to those of the revolutionists, and further state that he had occupied the bar which leads to the inland lake upon the shores of which the town is situated, and that the town was isolated. Also that the central government had prohibited all cabling and stopped all messages containing political news with a vigorous censorship.

Allotments to the Pawnee Indians.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The allotments to the Pawnee Indians in the Indian territory were yesterday formally approved by Acting Secretary Simms. The schedules embrace 668 allotments, covering 112,710 acres, leaving a surplus of 170,810 acres to be thrown open to settlement at the same time and in the same manner as the Cherokee strip.

THE CANDO FIEND.

A Determined Mob Demand His Surrender to Judge Lynch.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., July 11.—Shortly after dark this evening a number of determined men arrived here from Cando, N. D., and proceeded at once to the county jail. They were followed by an immense crowd and by 10 o'clock at least 1,500 people had gathered and began clamoring for Brumberger, the murderer of six members of the Kreider family near Cando. The sheriff, however, made a strong show of force and the mob slowly withdrew. All is confusion. QUERY: Does anybody think that it does not make a dollars worth of difference whether the administration is Democratic or Republican.

WANTED—a copy of the Decatur Review in which were published cuts of taxed brooms, castor oil and coffins in illustration of the "robber tariff."

IT is in order to call the attention of the Ohio Democrats to the fact that the state elects a governor this fall and that the Republicans have nominated McKinley for that office.

THE Democratic leaders are doing all in their power to induce the country to help them forget that the McKinley law was "the culminating atrocity of class legislation" before the last election.

THE doctrine taught by Democratic campaigners last fall that one man could rob another, without the other finding it out, promises about the same success that the inventors of flying machines are having.

THE rate that laboringmen are being thrown out of employment and the consequent reduction of wages demands that the party in power should show more eagerness to "rip up the robber tariff" than they are now manifesting.

A PROMINENT Democrat from Illinois township a few days ago told a man connected with the REPUBLICAN that so far as he knew there were only two Democrats in his township who endorsed Altgeld's course in pardoning the anarchists.

CLEVELAND was a "safe man" only so long as there was a Republican senate to prevent the attitude of his party from demoralizing the business of the country. That was the case during his first term. It is different now.

LAST fall entire Democratic speeches contained no reference to the silver question, being entirely devoted to the "tariff robbery." Strange that we now, from the same sources, hear nothing about "tariff robbery" and everything about the Sherman silver law.

ONE of the choice sayings of Democratic statesmen about a year ago was: "The tariff should be revised by its victims." The victims of the tariff since the election, however, do not seem to be so numerous, but you cannot walk the streets without meeting multitudes of victims of Democratic success at the polls last fall.

A DECATUR workingman who did not commit the folly of voting for free trade to get his wages raised, yesterday told the following good story: "When the Johet steel mills shut down, some of the men waited upon the manager to beg him to keep the mills open, saying: "What will we live on next winter, if the mills are closed?" The manager thought for a moment, and then replied 'You will have to live on the roosters you wore in your hats when you jollified over the result of the election.'"

Don't Whistle Too Soon.

The Decatur Review does not seem willing to admit that the Sherman silver law was forced upon the country as a temporary measure to defeat a free coinage law advocated by the Democrats and silver-state Republicans. Senator Sherman has repeatedly stated this to be the case, and he is supported in the statement by others who were in the conference committee, and the country is probably as ready to accept the word of Senator Sherman and his colleagues as true as that of a lot of campaigners who promised the people that in case of the election of a Democratic congress and president that wages would be increased and business would take a boom. But why does the Review permit in discussing the question as to whether the Sherman silver law was or was not the result of the free and untrammeled judgment of Senator Sherman and other Republicans, when they subsequently tried to repeal the law, and the Democrats refused to help them? The Republicans are on record as being in favor of its repeal, and the Democrats are on record as opposed to its repeal. If congress were composed of a majority of Republicans, President Cleveland would not have hesitated to call them together to repeal the law; but being composed of a large majority of Democrats, he was afraid to call them together, because he had no confidence in their ability or their honesty of purpose touching the financial question. He was afraid they were still in favor of free silver and would bring additional trouble upon the country if he called them together. He was, however, in spite of his fears, forced to call congress together, on account of the business of the country becoming more alarming. He is depending on the Republicans to give substantially a solid vote in favor of the repeal of the silver purchase clause of the Sherman law. He don't know what the Democrats will do. He hopes to be able to control them. Three weeks ago he was satisfied that his party in congress was opposed to repeal, and they are opposed to it today unless repeal can be followed with a free silver or gold cast bank law. Left to themselves, the present Democratic congress in special session, would put the country in a more deplorable condition than it is, and they will do it unless the majority of them can be controlled by the president and outvoted by the Republicans, and the few honest money Democrats in congress. The Review should understand that this is no time to discuss who passed the Sherman silver purchase law. The question is whether enough honest Democrats in congress can be secured to vote with the Republicans to make a majority to repeal it, and no man is certain at this time that this can be done; and if it is done a question still lies beyond this, namely, has the purchase of 4,500,000 ounces of silver per month produced all the trouble the country is passing through, or is it the threats of the Democratic party to rip up protection and abolish reciprocity, and bring about general economic revolution, that has frightened capital and brought disaster upon us?

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, July 10, 1893.

Rumors are flying thick and fast of an intention on the part of the free coinage Democrats to bolt the Democratic speaker, in order to defeat the administration programme, which includes the re-election of Speaker Crisp. The new House will have a total membership of 356, of whom 128 are Republicans and 13 Populists. Should 38 of the 215 Democrats bolt the Democratic caucus it would be possible to defeat Crisp, but while it is possible, no well-informed person considers it probable. It is more likely that these rumors are started for the purpose of obtaining concessions to the Democratic silver men in the make-up of the House committees through the fear of Crisp and the administration that such a combination might be made. While the Republicans could not prevent the Populists and bolting Democrats voting for their nominee for speaker, if they wished to do so, they do not as a rule regard the election of a Republican speakerr under such circumstances as a very desirable thing.

Two members of the cabinet will take their vacation at government expense. Secretary Herbert, who has just returned from the World's Fair, will this week start upon what he is pleased to call an inspection of the eastern navy yards. He will go on the Dolphin and the trip will be along the Atlantic coast as far east as Maine. Secretary Hoke Smith goes Herbert several better, as he, in company with his wife and three children, his father and mother, two nieces and three invited guests, is now on a western inspection tour, in a private car, and will take in the World's Fair and other points of interest along the route. Great is the "inspection tour," particularly when it is manipulated by a so-called reform administration. Democratic editors used to call such trips "pleasure junkets."

In addition to his efforts to reduce the pension roll, through the various methods already widely published, Commissioner Lochren has been directed by the President, according to information from a trustworthy source, to prepare a number of bills to be introduced in Congress which would drop a large number of pensioners should they become laws. The intention is to put forward the most harmless of these bills first, as Congressional pulse feelers, the others to follow in regular order if Congress appears to be in accord with the administration, or to be laid aside until a more propitious time should the contrary prove to be true. Representative Holman is not in accord with the administration on the pension question, notwithstanding his general fondness for economy. He is reported to have said the other day that if the pension program which has been drawn up by Mr. Cleveland and Secretary Hoke Smith be carried out the Republicans would have a majority of at least fifty in the House of the Fifty-fourth Congress, the members of which will be elected next year.

Mr. Cleveland's health is again a leading topic of conversation. That it has not been entirely good has for some time been apparent to those who have come into close contact with him and that his physician has forbid his doing any work for the present is known here, but it is generally thought to be nothing more serious than overwork, caused by his queer habit of spending hours over routine work that might just as easily be performed by one of the clerks at the White House. A doctor who knows him sums up his case thus: "Oh, Cleveland is just like most fat men, he is a slave to his stomach, and every once in a while it brings him to his knees. And if he does not learn to control it, it will eventually kill him, just as other fat men are being killed every day."

HOW DO YOU DO

when you buy shoes or clothing? Don't you go to the place (if you can find it) where they tell you that you may wear the articles out, and then, if you're not satisfied, they'll refund the money? Why not do the same when you buy medicine?

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is sold on that plan. It's the only blood-purifier so certain and effective that it can be guaranteed to benefit or cure, in every case, or you have your money back.

It's not like the ordinary spring medicines or sarsaparillas. All the year round, it cleanses, builds up, and invigorates the system. If you're bilious, run-down, or dyspeptic, or have any blood-taint, nothing can equal it as a remedy.

The worst cases of Chronic Catarrh in the Head, yield to Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. So certain is it that its makers offer $500 reward for an incurable case.

THE COUNTY ASSESSMENT.

The Total is $10,186,417—Big Increase in Decatur Township.

The assessors' books in the office of County Clerk Hardy for the year 1893 tell an interesting story. The figures show that if all the money is collected the county treasurer next spring will receive a total of $10,186,417 in cold cash. This is an increase of $392,835 over the assessment of 1892. The increase is wholly in Decatur township. The Decatur assessor made these increases over '92: Personal property, $207,273; lands, $21,840; lots, $126,741; total, $355,854. There was no increase in the country on the assessment. Instead it was a decrease on total valuation of $36,981.

The tabulated returns show that there are in the county horses whose total assessed value is $354,144; average, $21.08; cattle, $120,221; average, $7.30; mules, $31,709; average, $23.26; sheep, $5,634; average, $1.01; hogs, $45,431; average, $2.01. Value of all kinds of grain, $180,573. Total assessed value of all personal property, $2,060,883.

LANDS IN COUNTY.

Total, lands, lots and personal, $10,186,417.

In 1873 the total assessment in Macon county was $18,364,897, in 1874 it was over $18,000,000; in 1876, over $15,000,000; in 1877, over $13,000,000; in 1879, over $9,000,000; in 1892, over $9,856,195.

Death at Niantic.

Mrs. Mary Turner passed away at the home of her son-in-law, I. N. Webb, at Niantic on Tuesday, aged 75 years. Her death was sudden, although the deceased had been ill for months. Mrs. Turner was the widow of Walter Turner, who was well-known to all the old settlers of Macon county She was born in Green county, Ohio, January 2, 1818. Her maiden name was Mary Lucas. When she was a child of three her parents moved to Logan county, Illinois. In her sixteenth year she was married to Walter Turner, who preceded her in death thirteen years, dying in 1880. She was the mother of fourteen children, of whom eight survive her and mourn that dearest of all earthly friends, a devoted mother. Those living are Abijah of Buffalo, Kan., Mrs. Mary Ash of Dalton, Kan., John of Monticello, William, Mrs. Hannah Freeman, Mrs. Sarah J. Beck, Mrs. Margaret A. Webb and Mrs. Amanda Pritchett, all of Macon county.

The time for the funeral has not been determined. It will be conducted by Rev. E. A. Gilliland, pastor of the Christian church of Niantic. The interment will be at the Harristown cemetery by the side of her husband.

Oakland Park Camp Meeting.

The preachers who came yesterday to the camp ground are as follows: M. N. Kern, of Oxford, Ind.; Rev. McCracken, of Vandalia, Ill.; Rev. James Marsh, of Chicago, Ill.; Rev. J. N. Eason, of Hillsboro, Ill.; Rev. W. J. Bone, of Colchester, Ill., and T. H. Marsh, presiding elder, Greenville, Ill. Bishop Coleman preached last night a gospel sermon to a large congregation. After the sermon there was an altar service which brought thirteen forward for prayer. Quite a number professed to be saved. The meetings are growing in interest every meeting. Quite a number of preachers and workers are expected from Chicago to-day to help carry on the work. Services to-morrow are as follows: Prayer meeting at 6 a. m.; lovefeast, 9 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m.; children's meeting, 2 p. m.; preaching at 3 and 8 p. m. Rev. Marsh, of Chicago, will preach to-night. Come and hear him. Everybody invited.

Star Mills at Shelbyville Fail.

The failure of the Star mills, with liabilities of nearly $80,000 and with half that amount of assets, following in the wake of the Thornton bank failure, has left matters decidedly gloomy at Shelbyville. Most of the liabilities of the mills are due the bank. There was talk yesterday of paying the depositors of the bank dollar for dollar. It is the impression that if they get 50 cents on the dollar they may consider themselves fortunate. The deposits are understood to have been in the neighborhood of $500,000.

The New Jury Law.

"I see it is said that the new jury law will make a class of professional jurors," said a well-known attorney yesterday. "It can't very well do that because the law says a man who has served on a jury within three months is not eligible for jury service. If it is against the state's interest to have professional jurymen, it is only necessary for the state's attorney to ask the jurymen if he has been on a jury within three months. If he has that knocks him out It is the same with the defendant."

Quail and Prairie Chicken.

A piece of legislation of interest to hunters is that the time when quail may lawfully be killed has been changed from October and November, to November and December. This gives three and a half months of hunting, as the prairie chicken law permits the killing of that game from Sept. 15 to Nov. 1, the quail law "coming in" immediately after chicken "goes out." Sportsmen should remember this.

Girofle-Girofla.

At Riverside Park this evening the Gilbert company will present the sparkling little Girofle-Girofla. Last evening the pavilion was crowded and the audience enjoyed "Pinafore." The opera may be a little aged but the beautiful music is still there and the audience appreciated it as evidenced by the frequent applause. Admission 10 cents.

RUST AND CHINCH BUGS.

Condition of Illinois Crops for the Past Week.

The temperature of the past seven days has been about the normal in the northern and central counties, while in the southern counties it ranged from 1 to 3 degrees above. An average amount of sunshine prevailed during the week. In the northern and in the western half of the central division, the rainfall for the week was generally in excess of a seasonable average, and was beneficial to the growing crops. In the other counties it was principally in the form of badly distributed showers, and was considerably below the normal; in many of the counties no rain fell.

Wheat harvesting has been completed in the southern division, and much of it has been put in stack and some threshing has been done. The reports indicate that the yield in this section will be less than was anticipated earlier in the season. In the central division wheat will probably be all harvested the coming week. Some fields have been cut in the northern division. In some of the central counties the yield will be poor as to quantity and quality; the most discouraging reports come from Scott, Brown, Morgan and Cass counties. Oats harvesting is being pushed in extreme southern counties, and is finished in some locations. This crop, except in some sections where it is reported short, is generally in fine condition. There are some complaints of rust, and some fields were lodged by the rain and high wind of July 8th. Corn is generally reported in fine condition, making excellent growth and as having been greatly benefited where rain fell. The St. Clair county correspondents report chinch bugs injuring corn slightly. The prospect for this crop was never better than at the present time. Hay-cutting still progresses, and in some sections the crop was damaged by rain. Potatoes have been injured by the warm dry weather. Rye harvesting is progressing throughout the state. There has been no material change reported in the condition of fruit.

THE GAME LAW.

Extracts from Circulars Recently Sent Out.

Circulars from the Illinois Humane Society have reached the city. They contain the following extracts from the state game laws: "What birds are not to be killed—No person shall, at any time within this state, kill, or attempt to trap, net, ensnare, destroy or kill, any robin, bluebird, swallow, martin, mosquito hawk, whippoorwill cuckoo, woodpecker, catbird, brownthrasher, redbird, hanging bird, buzzard, sparrow, humming bird, dove goldfinch, mocking bird, bluejay, finch, thrush, lark, cherry bird, yellow bird, oriole or bobolink, nor rob or destroy the nests of such birds, or either of them. Any person so offending shall, on conviction, be fined the sum of $5 for each and every bird so killed and for each and every nest robbed or destroyed; provided that nothing in this section shall be so construed to prevent the owner or occupants of lands from destroying any of the birds herein named on the same when deemed necessary by him for the protection of fruits or property."

How Is It?

This item is going the rounds of the press of the state:

"Many towns and cities in Illinois have heretofore been granting saloon licenses at $500 per annum, payable quarterly in advance, but the supreme court has decided the quarterly payment plan contrary to law and hereafter in most places parties taking out licenses will be required to pay for the entire year in advance."

In Decatur the payments are made every quarter, $125, and the licenses are for a year.

OF GENERAL INTEREST.

—It is estimated that the Mississippi river annually discharges into the Gulf of Mexico 19,500,000,000,000 cubic feet of water. Of this prodigious quantity the 1-3,900 part will be sediment. Thus the Mississippi annually deposits alone into the Gulf of Mexico sufficient mud to cover a square mile of surface to a height of 240 feet.

—The gluttonous capacity of a full grown Esquimaux is reported to be equal to the consumption of twenty pounds of flesh and oil daily, while another inhabitant of the cold climates, a Yakut, of Siberia, has been known to consume in twenty-four hours the hindquarter of a large ox, twenty pounds of fat and a quantity of melted butter for his drink.

—Some elderly Philadelphia women, inmates of the Pennsylvania Women's home, are becoming distinguished athletes in their declining years. At a recent picnic two of them, Miss Hopple and Miss Houghton, each sixty-five years of age, indulged in a fifty-yard dash. A foot-ball contest and a foot-race were other features of the entertainment.

—Cremationists, among other arguments against interment of the dead, state that it requires a thousand acres of land yearly to bury those who die in the United States, and that the expense of funerals exceeds the annual output of our gold and silver mines. Possibly it might be figured out that in course of time all our wealth as well as bodies and land would go into the cemeteries.

—Miss Martha D. Bessey, of New York, who won the prize of fifty dollars for the best design of the badge to be worn by the lady managers of the world's fair, is a young lady of twenty-two, who received her art education at Cooper Institute, and is at present the only woman designer employed by Tiffany & Co. Miss Sarah Winthrop Smith, of Connecticut, received honorable mention among the competitors for the prize.

—The employes of Mme. N. G. Felicie, dealer in children's costumes and French underwear for ladies, in New York, receive, besides their regular salaries, one-half the net profits of the business. On her recent return from Paris, Madame Felicie distributed twenty-five per cent. of the profits in cash, deposited twenty per cent. in the bank for the employes and set aside the remaining five per cent. as a sick-benefit fund.

—Mrs. C. C. Candy, of Denver, lately made the descent of Pike's Peak on a bicycle, the first woman, and doubtless for some time the last, to venture on such a perilous undertaking. The descent occupied four hours and fifteen minutes. The daring cyclist had a dangerous fall from her wheel over a line of steep bowlders, and encountered a pelting storm of rain and hail, but received no permanent injury from her unusual experience —Whenever we see any report of the progress of buildings for the world's fair it is abundantly strewed with adjectives conveying the idea of greatness, elegance and awe, but from only one paper have we learned that there have been 3,000 hospital cases and seven hundred deaths among the workingmen since the construction of the buildings began. The converting of a marsh by the lake to a paradise park has resulted in more sickness and death than we had any idea was likely to be attendant upon that great work of transformation

—"Chicago" is spelled in various ways by the residents of this country, but now that the world outside is becoming acquainted with the great western metropolis, a marvelous spell of orthography has been inaugurated. In sorting over the letters from various parts of the world 197 different ways of spelling the name have been found, among them "Jagjago," "Hipaho," "Jajigo," "Shocchago," "Hizago," "Chachicho," and a scholarly resident of Finland indulges in "Zizazo." A collection of addresses is to be kept for exhibition at the world's fair.

—The vandal woodcutters in the California sequoia forests used to cut the trees at a distance of from a dozen to twenty feet above the ground in order to avoid the gnarled and knotted base But it has lately been found that these stumps are as valuable as the straight wood The gnarls present most beautiful figurings, and the wood is sawed into thin sheets and used for interior decorations. Now these stumps are being dug out, and soon not even a vestige will remain to show what was the appearance of some of the most majestic natural monuments of this wonderful continent.

LIKE a ship without a rudder is a man or a woman without health and the necessary strength to perform the ordinary duties of life. When the appetite fails, when debility, and a disordered condition of stomach, liver, kidney, and bowels assail you, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A MASSACHUSETTS divine who suffers from the flies, and who likes to have the doors of his house closed in order to keep out the insects, asks pathetically whether some newspaper man won't write an article entitled "Why Women Stand at the Door (Especially the Screen Door in Fly Time) for the Last Words After They Have Taken Five Minutes to Half an Hour Indoors to Say Good-bye?" Here is a chance for an ungallant writer.

no legal right to pass the ordinance forbidding the existence of slaughter house business within the limits, and that therefore the cases should be dismissed. I. R. Mills and Buckingham & Schroll, who appear for the defendants in the case, made vigorous arguments on the point, and came at the court with copious quotations from court decisions. The point was resisted by City Attorney J. M. Lee, and by Mr. C. A. Ewing, who is employed to assist in the prosecution of the cases.

Justice Hammer gave a patient hearing to all that was said and read, and when the attorneys had finished their speeches he said that he would not dismiss the action and refused to pass judgment on the legality of the ordinance. He thought that point should be passed upon by a higher court.

It was arranged by the defense to take a change of venue to Justice Peddicord's court. A jury will be secured and evidence will be submitted as to whether or not the slaughter houses in question are nuisances.

There are five slaughter houses within the city limits. The prosecution has in view the removal of the same to points one mile beyond the city limits, as provided by ordinance.

THE VOTE WAS 54 TO 6.

National Commissioners' Verdict on Closing the World's Fair.

The advocates of Sunday closing of the World's Fair scored a point at the meeting of the National Commission held yesterday at Chicago when this resolution was adopted by a vote of 54 to 6:

Resolved, By the World's Columbian commission that the ruling now being enforced by the World's Columbian Exposition, a corporation under the laws of the state of Illinois, for the purpose of opening the gates of the Exposition on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, has not been approved by this commission and it is in violation of the rule jointly adopted and promulgated by said exposition and said commission, and is being enforced without the assent or authority of the World's Columbian commission.

Hon. Lafayette Funk, of McLean county, was one of the six commissioners who voted in the negative.

Denies the Allegation.

In the telegraph columns of Monday's Pantagraph was a report of the action of the inter-state convention of bakers and candy makers at Decatur thanking Gov. Altgeld for releasing the anarchists. One F. Kienzie, of this city, was reported as voting in favor of it. There is no such man living here, but Mr. H. F. Kienzie, in the employ of his brother, J. S. Kienzie, the North Main street baker, is president of the local bakers' union and was a delegate to the convention, but did not attend, and says he therefore could not have voted in favor of the resolution. Had he been present he would have voted against it, as he has no sympathy with either Altgeld or the anarchists.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

The Negro Proved an Alibi.

The negro arrested at Milan, Tenn., Monday, for complicity in the murder of the Ray sisters succeeded in proving an alibi and was released. It was first reported that he had confessed. Efforts are making to follow up still another clew which may shed light on Miller's connection with the matter. The trouble seems to be to prove that the man lynched had any connection with the killing of the girls.

Died at the Poor House.

On July 12, at 10 o'clock a. m., of consumption, at the poor farm, Charles Reed, aged 21 years.

The deceased was sent to the poor farm last December from Decatur. He was sick and indigent when he was admitted. He claimed to be from Ohio and that he had relatives there, but refused to say in what part of the state they lived or where he was from.

Blamed Her Mother-in-Law.

SULLIVAN, Ill., July 11.—Mrs. James M. Boling, who lived about ten miles southeast of here, committed suicide with strychnine last night. She and her husband lived with the latter's parents. She wrote three letters before her death to relatives, in which she stated that her husband was kind and indulgent, but she could not live with her mother-in-law. She leaves four small children.

John Niccols.

John Niccols, an early settler of Bloomington, who twenty years ago was a millionaire land owner, died yesterday aged 83. He was an intimate personal friend of the late James G. Blaine. Mr. Niccols was the father of Mrs. Harry G. Reeves, of Bloomington, the wife of Governor Fifer's private secretary.

Flimsy Wagon Bridge Gives Way.

VANDALIA, Ill., July 11.—The Third street wagon bridge over the Vandalia railroad tracks in this city gave way this afternoon beneath a team and wagon loaded with two large saw logs and fell thirty feet to the railroad track below. The team and driver, Levi Sutton, escaped without injury.

A Relief Fund.

Contributions are coming in rapidly for the wives and children of the firemen killed at the burning of the cold storage building on the World's Fair ground. Five or six thousand dollars have already been sent in.

Ore Received.

About 40 pounds of sample ores from the Volcanic Copper and Smelting company's mines in Arizona were received to-day, and may be seen at the office of Hunter Bros., Merchant street.

Campers.

W. H. Rogers, G. F. Roberts, G. A. Williams and Will Lyons with a complete camping outfit will go to Coulter's mill Saturday night for a week's outing.

Mr. and Crowder and [illegible] Peoria to take Marguerite home to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hillman. There were ten other passengers in the coach at the time of the collision; but fortunately none were seriously hurt. Mr. Crowder was facing the rear of the coach. He was thrown forward and struck the back of a seat, and he was shaken up as never before in a given time. Mrs. Crowder was bruised by coming in contact with the car. There were no fractures. Little Marguerite was slightly hurt on the head, but Miss Burrows was not injured at all. She at once telegraphed her parents, noting the accident, and stating that she was assisting in taking care of those who had been hurt. The two cars keeled over at the side of the track, and considerable damage to the rolling stock and the track resulted.

Miss Burrows continued her journey last night to Iowa, taking the Hillman child on to Peoria. Mr. and Mrs. Crowder returned to Decatur, and both were attended at the Shellabarger residence by Dr. Cass. Chenoweth. Mrs. Crowder is quite sore to-day. Mr. Crowder is able to get around with a limp and the use of a cane. He has accident policies and will probably file his claim.

The responsibility for the wreck, it is claimed, rests with the Alton road. The freight was approaching the crossing at a high rate of speed and it could not be checked. It is said that the Vandalia train had the right to the crossing. None of the trainmen were hurt.

and that they had not the slightest doubt as to his identity.

Something of a sensation was caused by the arrival in the city of Mrs. Daniel Benton, of Tennessee, who claims the defendant as her husband, and is positive as to her title to him. Mrs. William C. Newby is equally positive that the defendant is her husband, and, as the two disagree, there is a good deal of doubt in the public mind as to what is all means. The trial will occupy a number of days.

AN ASSESSMENT.

Members of the Pekin and Spring Lake Hunting and Fishing Club Assessed to Make Improvements.

The directors of the Pekin and Spring Lake Hunting and Fishing Club have ordered that a fifth installment of ten per cent, being ten dollars on each and every share subscribed to the capital stock, be paid on or before August 1, 1893. This assessment is the result of a resolution on the part of the board of directors to enclose the ground with a barbed wire fence. The fence will be about 35 miles long and will cost about $2,500. A contract has been made for twenty tons of barbed wire to be delivered August 1, to be used in constructing the fence. If paid on delivery 2 per cent will be deducted from the price of the wire and for this reason the directors are anxious that members shall pay this assessment promptly.

Those members of the club who live in Decatur may pay this assessment at the Citizen's National Bank, where those who pay may receive receipts for such a payment.

The Cruiser Detroit.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The Columbia iron works have notified the navy department that the cruiser Detroit, built by them, is now ready for delivery to the government. The reports of the bureaus of construction and engineering recommending the acceptance of the vessel are in the hands of Secretary Herbert, and will probably be acted on to-day. The vessel will be sent to the Norfolk navy yard, where she will stay until she goes into commission.

The Khedive's Visit to Constantinople.

LONDON, July 12.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Times telegraphs: The khedive visited Ishmael Pasha yesterday, and he intends to call upon the foreign ambassadors. His visit is beginning to embarrass the government. It is feared that he will insist that the sultan shall take open measures in Egypt, and will threaten to abdicate if the sultan refuses. The report that a contingent of Egyptian nobles are coming here increases the alarm lest a popular demonstration be created.

The Silver Market Weak and Lower.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The silver market is weak and lower, certificates falling to 71⅝ at the stock exchange. The treasury department purchases yesterday were disappointingly small to holders and accounts for the weakness of the market. Commercial bar silver fell to 70¼, and Mexican dollars were unchanged at 57.

Placed on the Retired List.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—An order was issued at the navy department yesterday placing Chaplain H. H. Steward on the retired list of the navy. He was appointed from Massachusetts and has been in the service thirty years.

LOGAN LETTER.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 12, 1893.

We have had a moderate business in wheat today. The near future depends on the crop prospects. The documents we have from the spring wheat districts do not promise a full average yield. This with a small winter crop and short crops in the United Kingdom and on the continent should give higher prices, but for the clouds in the financial world.

The corn trade has been quiet with a firm undertone. The shipping demand is less active. We feel friendly to corn around present prices.

No feature to oats; the cash demand is fair.

Hog product has been weak from the opening until the close. All hog product to us looks high.

Ice Cream Freezers.

We have on sale the celebrated Horizontal ice cream freezer. It is conceded by every manufacturer of ice cream that it is the finest freezer in the world. Give it a trial and you will be convinced.
